GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2011

Н

HOUSE BILL 2 Committee Substitute Favorable 1/31/11 Third Edition Engrossed 2/2/11 PROPOSED SENATE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE H2-PCS80020-RK-4

	Short Title: Protect Health Care Freedom.	(Public)
	Sponsors:
	Referred to:
	January 27, 2011
1	A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2		RE AND HEALTH
3	INSURANCE.
4
5	•	ed by adding a new
6	Article to read:
7
8
9	" § 58-49A-1. Constraints on health care freedom prohibited.
10
11
12		olic or private health
13
14
15
16
17
18
19	· · · · · ·	-
20
21
22	persons in custody of the Department of Correction or a local confinement facility or who have 23
24 25		-
25 26	_	se mounty any of the
20 27		use is lighter for the 28
28 29
30		-
31		, services of medical
~ 1

D

1 (2) Any law regarding which health care services or medical treatments are lawful within this State or who is authorized to provide health care services or medical treatments within this State. 3 (3) Any right or duty of a health care agent with respect to the principal pursuant to a health care power of attorney executed in accordance with Article 3 of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes. 7 (4) Any law regarding the right or duty of a parent or guardian in the determination or provision of health care services or medical treatment for a minor. 10 (5) Any law regarding the screening of newborns for metabolic or other hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 29 Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a condition of receiving State economic incentives. 20 Any law requiring the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure		General Assembly Of North Carolina Session 2011
2 lawful within this State or who is authorized to provide health care services or medical treatments within this State. 4 (3) Any right or duty of a health care agent with respect to the principal pursuant to a health care power of attorney executed in accordance with Article 3 of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes. 7 (4) Any law regarding the right or duty of a parent or guardian in the determination or provision of health care services or medical treatment for a minor. 10 (5) Any law regarding the screening of newborns for metabolic or other hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 24 (10) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chem	1	(2)	Any law regarding which health care services or medical treatments are
4 (3) Any right or duty of a health care agent with respect to the principal pursuant to a health care power of attorney executed in accordance with Article 3 of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes. 7 (4) Any law regarding the right or duty of a parent or guardian in the determination or provision of health care services or medical treatment for a minor. 10 (5) Any law regarding the screening of newborns for metabolic or other hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 29	2
5 to a health care power of attorney executed in accordance with Article 3 of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes. 7 (4) Any law regarding the right or duty of a parent or guardian in the determination or provision of health care services or medical treatment for a minor. 10 (5) Any law regarding the screening of newborns for metabolic or other hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatments ordered under the Workers' Compensation Act. 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law requiring the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 29 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for	3		or medical treatments within this State.
5 to a health care power of attorney executed in accordance with Article 3 of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes. 7 (4) Any law regarding the right or duty of a parent or guardian in the determination or provision of health care services or medical treatment for a minor. 10 (5) Any law regarding the screening of newborns for metabolic or other hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatments ordered under the Workers' Compensation Act. 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 29 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for	4	(3)	Any right or duty of a health care agent with respect to the principal pursuant
7 (4) Any law regarding the right or duty of a parent or guardian in the determination or provision of health care services or medical treatment for a minor. 10 (5) Any law regarding the screening of newborns for metabolic or other hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatments ordered under the Workers' Compensation Act. 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 29 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the reside	5		to a health care power of attorney executed in accordance with Article 3 of
8 determination or provision of health care services or medical treatment for a minor. 10 (5) Any law regarding the screening of newborns for metabolic or other hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatments ordered under the Workers' Compensation Act. 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a condition of receiving State economic incentives. 24 (2) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enf	6		Chapter 32A of the General Statutes.
8 determination or provision of health care services or medical treatment for a minor. 10 (5) Any law regarding the screening of newborns for metabolic or other hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatments ordered under the Workers' Compensation Act. 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a condition of receiving State economic incentives. 24 (2) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enf	7	(4)	Any law regarding the right or duty of a parent or guardian in the
10(5)Any law regarding the screening of newborns for metabolic or other11hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for12lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children13entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440.14(6)Any law regarding health care services or medical treatments ordered under15the Workers' Compensation Act.16(7)Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding17involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse.18(8)The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil20testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and21the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with22(9)Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a23(9)Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine26possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a27terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North28(c)An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private31right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and32state to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the33Any law regarding the scenonic incertives.34Carolina General Statutes.35	8
11 hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for 12 lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children 13 entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatments ordered under 15 the Workers' Compensation Act. 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding 17 involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil 19 action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic 20 testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and 21 the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with 22 Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine 26 possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a 27 terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North 28 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private	9		minor.
12 lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children 13 entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatments ordered under 15 the Workers' Compensation Act. 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding 17 involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil 19 action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic 20 testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and 21 the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with 22 Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine 26 possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a 27 terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North 28 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private 29 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section h	10	(5)	Any law regarding the screening of newborns for metabolic or other
13 entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440. 14 (6) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatments ordered under the Workers' Compensation Act. 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 29 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources."	11		hereditary and congenital disorders, examination and testing of a child for
14(6)Any law regarding health care services or medical treatments ordered under the Workers' Compensation Act.16(7)Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse.18(8)The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes.23(9)Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a condition of receiving State economic incentives.24(10)Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes.29(c)An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources."	12		lead poisoning under G.S. 130A-131.9, and health assessments for children
15 the Workers' Compensation Act. 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a condition of receiving State economic incentives. 24 condition of receiving State economic incentives. 25 (10) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 29 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources."	13		entering Kindergarten in the public schools as required in G.S. 130A-440.
 16 (7) Any law regarding health care services or medical treatment regarding involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. 18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a condition of receiving State economic incentives. 25 (10) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 29 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources." 	14	(6) involuntary commitments for mental illness or substance abuse. (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. (9) Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a condition of receiving State economic incentives. (10) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources."
18 (8) The physical and mental examination of a party ordered by a judge in a civil 19 action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic 20 testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and 21 the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with 22 Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. 23 (9) Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a 24 condition of receiving State economic incentives. 25 (10) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine 26 possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a 27 terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North 28 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private 30 right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and 31 standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of 32 this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the 33 Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the		(7)
19action pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, blood or genetic20testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and21the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with22Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes.23(9)Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a24condition of receiving State economic incentives.25(10)Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine26possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a27terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North28Carolina General Statutes.29(c)An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private31right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and32state to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the33Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the34Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants35or funding that are available from other sources."
20testing to establish paternity pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1 and G.S. 110-132.2, and21the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with22Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes.23(9)Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a24condition of receiving State economic incentives.25(10)Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine26possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a27terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North28Condina General Statutes.29(c)An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private30right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and31standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of32this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the33Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the34Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants35or funding that are available from other sources."		(8)
21the taking of DNA or any other biological evidence in accordance with22Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes.23(9)Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a24condition of receiving State economic incentives.25(10)Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine26possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a27terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North28Carolina General Statutes.29(c)An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private30right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and31standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of32this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the33Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the34Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants35or funding that are available from other sources."			· ·
 Chapter 15A of the North Carolina General Statutes. (9) Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a condition of receiving State economic incentives. (10) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources."
 (9) Any law requiring the provision of health insurance for employees as a condition of receiving State economic incentives. (10) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources."
 24 condition of receiving State economic incentives. 25 (10) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine 26 possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a 27 terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North 28 Carolina General Statutes. 29 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private 30 right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and 31 standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of 32 this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the 33 Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the 34 Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants 35 or funding that are available from other sources."
 (10) Any law regarding the examination and testing of persons to determine possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources." 		(9)
 possible exposure to nuclear, biological, or chemical agents caused by a terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North Carolina General Statutes. (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources." 		(1.0)
 27 terrorist incident, as provided in Article 22 of Chapter 130A of the North 28 Carolina General Statutes. 29 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private 30 right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and 31 standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of 32 this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the 33 Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the 34 Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants 35 or funding that are available from other sources." 		(10)
 Carolina General Statutes. (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources."
29 (c) An individual aggrieved by a violation of this section has standing to bring a private 30 right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and 31 standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of 32 this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the 33 Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the 34 Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants 35 or funding that are available from other sources."
30 right of action for the violation. In addition, the Attorney General shall have the duty and 31 standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of 32 this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the 33 Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the 34 Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants 35 or funding that are available from other sources."
31 standing to bring or defend a State or federal action or proceeding on behalf of the residents of 32 this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the 33 Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the 34 Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants 35 or funding that are available from other sources."
 this State to enforce the provisions of this section. Any funds required by the Office of the Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources."
 Attorney General to fulfill the responsibilities under this subsection shall be provided by the Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants or funding that are available from other sources."
 34 Department of Justice from other funds appropriated to the Department and from other grants 35 or funding that are available from other sources."
35 or funding that are available from other sources."
36 SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.	36			